Core Competencies – Quietus

- Advanced close-contact combatives and edged-weapon training for military, intelligence, and high-threat security professionals.
- Mission-driven instruction in threat assessment, sentry/obstacle defeat, kinetic control tactics, improvised tools, and decisive-closure engagements.
- Custom programs for tactical units covering weapon access and retention, in-fight transitions, CQ blade vs. pistol dynamics, and team-level coordination under lethal-force constraints.
- Delivered globally through classified, hybrid, and on-site formats for government, defense contractors, and select private clients.

Differentiators – Quietus

- Over 30 years of global operational experience, delivering elite combatives and edged-weapon programs across 25+ nations.
- Creator of the Quietus Doctrine—an evolution of the AMOK! Method—focused on decisive, real-world lethality for special operations and covert action units.
- Proven record training federal, military, and intelligence personnel in high-threat environments.
- Author of 30+ works on warfare, psychology, and human performance under combat stress.
- Integrates the Invincible Performance and Motive-Based Coaching systems to forge peak-state operators.

Past Performance — Quietus (Government & Military Focused)

- Federal & National Agencies: Repeatedly contracted to train U.S. federal law-enforcement and justice organizations, including FBI, DEA, IRS-CID, U.S. Secret Service task elements, U.S. Special Forces, and federal prosecutors' offices.
- Special Operations & Intelligence: Direct training relationships with special operations and intelligence units—domestic and allied—covering close-quarters combat, edged-weapon tactics, sentry/obstacle defeat, and team-level lethal-force coordination.

- State & Local Tactical Units: Longstanding programs for state police, SWAT, correctional SWAT teams, sheriff's offices, municipal police academies, and defensive-tactics instructor cadres (e.g., MA state police, Suffolk County, Boston PD, Rhode Island tactical/corrections units).
- International Military & Police Partners: Deployed programs across Europe, Southeast Asia, Africa, and the Americas for special forces, military units, national police, and corrections agencies (examples include Cambodian Special Forces, Hellenic Coast Guard, South African military and law enforcement, Mexican federal and corrections units, New Zealand corrections, Scandinavian police forces).
- Corrections & High-Risk Environments: Extensive work with prison systems and corrections officers on use-of-force, in-facility tactics, and edged-weapon mitigation.
- Conferences, Industry & Private Sector: Regular presenter at international tactical conferences (IALEFI and others) and provider of bespoke, vetted training for executive protection, private security firms, and corporate high-risk teams.
- Scope & Reach: Hundreds of government and military engagements across 20+ countries and thousands of trained operators—ranging from instructor-development courses to unit-level mission rehearsals and sensitive government-only programs.
